

Now is the Time:
We are the Ones

The 12th Annual Great Lakes Bioneers Detroit Conference

October 28 - 30, 2016

A Bioneers Resilient
Communities Network Event

S P E A K E R S

KATSI COOK

Deepening Indigenous Women's Networks: Embodiment, Healing and Resilience

Legendary Mohawk midwife and environmental health researcher and advocate.

BILL MCKIBBEN

What Winning the Climate Change Battle Looks Like

The most influential climate activist of our era.

MONICA LEWIS-PATRICK

Mapping Our Own Transformation

Monica Lewis Patrick, M.A.L.S. is an educator, entrepreneur, and human rights activist/advocate.

5 TOURS

- Drew Farms: Growing Healthy Minds & Healthy Bodies
- HOPE Village Eco-D tour
- Growing Connected, Sustainable Communities in Detroit's Cass Corridor
- Moving beyond fossils fuels to Clean Energy
- Detroit is a Great Lakes City!

23 ADULT LEARNSHOPS

Check the website for complete list

- uprooting racism and planting justice
- neighborhood organizing
- water as a human right
- transportation
- gardening with children 0 to 5
- create a green team in your congregation
- biomimicry
- urban farming
- food security
- healthy 'fast food' media
- childhood obesity
- freedom schools initiative
- ethical finance
- awaken life energy
- ritual, yoga, meditation, art and poetry

For more information or to register www.glbld.org (313) 717-6151. Early registration ends midnight October 21. Work scholarships and volunteer opportunities available.

Marygrove College
8425 McNichols Rd.,
Detroit, MI 48221

